THE JOURNAL OF EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN
ARCHAEOLOGY AND HERITAGE STUDIES (JEMAHS)

is a peer-reviewed journal published by the Pennsylvania State University Press. JEMAHS is devoted to traditional, anthropological, social, and applied archaeologies of the eastern Mediterranean, encompassing both prehistoric and historic periods. The journal's geographic range spans three continents and brings together, as no academic periodical has done before, the archaeologies of Greece and the Aegean, Anatolia, the Levant, Cyprus, Egypt, and North Africa.

As the journal will not be identified with any particular archaeological discipline, the editors invite articles from all varieties of professionals who work on the past cultures of the modern countries bordering the eastern Mediterranean Sea. Similarly, a broad range of topics will be covered including, but by no means limited to:

- Excavation and survey field results;
- Landscape archaeology and GIS;
- Underwater archaeology;
- Archaeological sciences and archaeometry;
- Material culture studies;
- Ethnoarchaeology;
- Social archaeology;
- Conservation and heritage studies;
- Cultural heritage management;
- Sustainable tourism development; and
- New technologies/virtual reality.

Appearing four times a year in February, May, August, and November, the journal will engage professionals and scholars of archaeology and heritage studies as well as non-practitioners and students, both graduate and undergraduate.

In addition to combining traditional and theoretical archaeological data and interpretation, the journal's articles may range from early prehistory to recent historical time periods. It also aims to publish accessible, jargon-free, readable, color-illustrated articles that will be informative for professional and non-professional readers. The journal does not publish unprovenanced artifacts purchased on the antiquities market or objects from private collections.
